

LISTENING COMPREHENSION

This 11-Year-Old Is Keeping Homeless People Warm

Fill in the gaps in the following sentences

1. Rudy: Hi, I'm Rudy Washington, otherwise known as the sock-men and today I'm _____ socks to the _____ people on this very cold day in Detroit.
2. Homeless man: It only takes one man to change the world. Remember that it comes from the _____ it comes from right here, that's what makes the man.
3. Rudy: It's not about me ... that's somebody's mom, dad, sister, brother ... You never know how much you have until you _____ what you have.

Answer the following questions:

1. How did the idea of Sock Drive start?
2. How many pairs of socks were donated to homeless people in 2016?
3. What are Rudy's hobbies, besides volunteer work?

Answers

Fill in the gaps exercise:

1. Giving up; homeless.
2. Heart.
3. Lose.

Questions:

1. Rudy and his mom were sitting on the couch and she was scrolling on Facebook. She said: "Socks are the most needed but the least donated" and that really broke Rudy's heart. Then he asked his mom if they could start a Sock Drive.
2. Over 2,000 pairs of socks were handed out in 2016.
3. He plays basketball and he has a passion for music. He plays different instruments and wants to be a singer when he grows up.